WITNESS STATEMENT

I was working my usual shift when I noticed her. She was standing outside, looking up and down the street for quite a while — longer than most people do. She didn't seem lost exactly. More like she was looking for something. Or remembering something. She came in and sat down at one of the tables by the window. She had a bag with her — a backpack. She ordered but barely touched anything. She kept writing.

When she left, I noticed she had forgotten something on the table. Or maybe she left it on purpose. I'm not sure.

There were two things. I kept them in case someone came looking.

ITEMS RECOVERED FROM THE TABLE

- A small printed puzzle — some kind of word grid.
- A colour-coded sheet. No explanation.

I don't know what they mean. Maybe you will.

Two new evidence files have been recovered.
