

THE MISSING TRAVELLER

You've just arrived in Christchurch... or maybe you've been here for a while.

Either way — today you are not here by accident.

We need your help.

WHAT HAPPENED

Three days ago, a traveller was reported missing.

No emergency. No signs of danger. Just... gone.

We've tried following her route. We collected information. We found objects. We spoke to people.

But every clue led nowhere. Until now.

WHAT WE DO KNOW

The traveller was last seen boarding the Christchurch Tram.

After that — the trail disappears.

No confirmed sightings. No final destination. No explanation.

But something strange happened. She left behind small traces across the city.

Places. Objects. Notes. And for some reason — none of us could make sense of them.

WHY YOU WERE CHOSEN

You all come from different places. You notice different things. You think differently.

And maybe that's exactly what this case needs.

YOUR MISSION

→ Follow the traveller's route.

→ Open the evidence files.

→ Solve the clues.

→ Work together.

Maybe then, you'll discover what really happened. And find out:

Where did she go?

Your first piece of evidence has already been recovered.
